

O¹ SIP Trunking

Scale to Fit Your Business

Session Initiation Protocol (SIP) Trunking is the latest technology that is revolutionizing the way business' make and receive telephone calls. This cost-effective and dynamic solution reduces telecommunication costs to enterprises, simplifies voice deployment and administration, and delivers a platform for new enhanced business communication services. SIP eliminates the need for PSTN media gateways and narrowband voice circuits.

Features

- Business continuity options
- Expanded local calling area
- Allows complete management of in-house calling plans and integration of communications with business applications
- Seamlessly connect branch offices, remote workers, and mobile users – quickly, easily and economically
- Increase profitability through lower operating costs and fewer capital expenses
- G.711, G.726 & G.729a/b

Benefits

- Only one connection needed for both data and voice service
- Automatic call re-routing for disaster recover needs
- No need to buy or maintain local PSTN gateway
- The SIP solution grows with your business
- Aggressive long distance rate plans
- 24 x 7 dedicated support
- Optional add-on solutions: centralized PBX, MPLS, and Colocation